

I adamantly oppose the proposed rules regarding media consolidation. I support a media that serves the public rather than global conglomerates. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules and disallow the new ones. The government needs to start working for the citizens rather than the corporations.